

An election message from Nigel Huddleston

Before the last General Election I promised that if I was elected as the MP for Mid Worcestershire I would be an active, visible and responsive Member of Parliament.

I hope that over the last two years I have proven to you that I am true to my word.

I have enjoyed visiting schools, businesses, charities and many other organisations right across the constituency and I have developed many new friendships in the process.

My office and I receive hundreds of emails, letters and calls from constituents every week and I interact with thousands more on social media.

I have been an active member of the Culture,

Media and Sport Committee helping to shape legislation on the BBC, sports governance, and communications services.

My voting and speaking records in Parliament are 'well above average' and I have participated in 68 debates in the last year, reflecting the views of my constituents and holding the Government to account.

It has been a pleasure to serve you for the last two years and I respectfully ask for your vote in the upcoming General Election.
